

Razor Blade Alley

Madness

Oooh I didn't talk too much in fact not at lot oh but to ask her the price I was to be no fool money's no time to waste or to shoot up the wall you got the know how the place teacher take me to your school

She lead the way from the alley back to her house must not be seen going in must not be seen coming out she said I looked mighty but thin she told me "I'm gonna give you a second helping"

Ooh Razor Blade Alley I've been there Razor Blade Alley neither of us cared it was the prime time but the wrong place it was my first time I hope my last taste

I'm just too shy to check in but this pain of pissing razors is cutting in

Mmm felt like a knight without shining armour on at the time she thought she was in a dream floating up on cloud nine now I awake she is nowhere but the razor cuts deeper everywhere
