Pillage and Burn

Malevolent Creation

Swift invasion, bold and precise Minimal resistance from the opposition Massive drove of soldiers, interpret certain doom The worst is yet to come though; They know what they must do

Round them up like cattle, commence With the festivities Orders must be carried out Instructions to incinerate

The innocent and guilty burn as one Examples For the evil They have Done

Pillage and burn, All that stands Will fall in flames Pillage and burn, retaliatory act of rage

Conflicting beliefs have caused this rift A means to and end will never be seen

So it goes back and forth Armies of faith orchestrate the killing Torches thrown, all is ablaze Nothing remains alive at first light
