

Dylan's Song

Man Overboard

Wait
is everything okay?
Your eyes
seem to linger all day.
I took a beating on the
way of looking for you
Then it all went blank
and you went home.

You can't out will this
and I'm not fixed
I just masked it.
No one knows more than me
how easy this could fail
and i'm trying to earn my real life back tonight.

It's been a week a week a week
A new of the worst twisting and turning I'm in my room my room my room for days, no eating or no sleeping.

You can't out will this
and I'm not fixed
I just masked it.
No one knows more than me
how easy this could fail
and i'm trying to earn my real life back tonight.

You can't out will this
and I'm not fixed
I just masked it.
No one knows more than me
how easy this could fail
and i'm trying to earn my real life back tonight.

Real life back tonight.

I took a beating on the
way of looking for you
Then it all went blank
and you went home.
