

Let's go home.
To a place we can call our own,
we can live there together,
be in love forever
and never have to be alone.

Would you try? Or would you leave me for some other guy?

I have been sitting without you
just thinking about you
When you wake up you will call me
and I will tell you that I miss you so.
and wishing you were here inside.

When you wake up you will call me
and I will tell you that I miss you so.
I make records so that when I'm gone
you can hear me on your stereo.

Love. I think were in love.

I'm so tired, since I met you
I'm always inspired.
I think I could change the world if you were really my girl
and we would have all we desired.
