

Stood Up

Man Overboard

I can't believe you didn't come here when I waited.
After everything we talked about and all the drama we created.
You don't even have time for me.
You say that you're depressed, well darling welcome to the club
now take a seat.
You say that you're depressed, well darling welcome to the club
now take a seat.
You won't feel better in the morning, I'll still exist and you'
ll still feel incomplete.

If you want to talk to me then I Promise I'll stop begging you to love me and I'll stop begging you to come by.
And if you wanna stop your crying,
I would kiss you till the sun came up and we'd be happy without trying.
I would kiss you till the sun came up and we'd be happy without
trying.
But now I know how quick you'd turn around and now I know when you were lying.

Her pretty face...
I didn't know your name when I found this place and it doesn't look the same.
And you don't seem the same.
You can take the sweet life and I'll take all the blame.
I'll take all the blame.
