

Decisions Decisions

Mansun

These monkey faces are laughing at me
Easy, one of life's rejections anyway, yeah
I wanted to be beautiful

My big decisions are going the flow
Easy, we were always losers anyway, yeah
Sitting on the fence again

All my big decisions always ruin my life
Gets harder with time
All my big decisions make me act like a child
Decisions decisions all the time

Not content to be one of life's spectators
I gravitate to all those stiffs and geeks, yeah
Life is entertaining me
Hurting strangers was easy
My weakness, my electric man is taking over me, yeah
I just brought him out again

I want you to stay
I want you to go
I can't make up my mind
It's driving me mad
I'm going the flow
I can't even decide

I want you to stay
I want you to go
I can't make up my mind
It's driving me mad
I'm going the flow
I can't even decide

No, no, no, no yeah

I want you to stay
I want you to go
Yeah, no, oh, yeah, oh
It's driving me mad
I'm going the flow
Oh, yeah, ow
