

Another Night Alone

Marc Broussard

Trying in my life, trying to survive
A world away from home
Doesn't feel like I belong
Just another night alone

Like a ship out on the sea, loneliness can be
The beacon on the shore
Cannot reach me anymore
Just another night alone

Without you, I'm waiting on the dawn
Missing you, your memory lingers on
Takes me home again but baby, until then
I'll just sing this song through another night alone

The rain upon the roof
It's tapping out a tune, yeah
True and sad and clear
This harmony you never hear
Just another night alone

Without you, I'm waiting on the dawn
Missing you, your memory lingers on
Takes me home again but baby, until then
I'll just sing this song through another night alone

Each note I sing, your love it comes to me
So I'll just sing this song through another night alone
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
