Posthuman

Marilyn Manson

She's got eyes like Zapruder And a mouth like heroin She wants me to be perfect like Kennedy This isn't god, this isn't god God is just a statistic God is just a statistic Say "show me the dead stars All of them sing." This is a riot Religious and clean

God is a number you cannot count to You are posthuman and hardwired

She's pilgrim and pagan Softworn and so-cial In all of her dreams She's a saint like Jackie O

This isn't god, this isn't god God is just a statistic [chorus repeat]

[Coma white:]
"All that glitters is cold, all that glitters is cold."
