

Ghosts & Lovers

Marissa Nadler

Winter was an island, child
Some of the friends
You had been gone a while
It's a dark twisted line across
You sear into the wild

People are looking down you say
You can feel the beat of yesterday
On the street there was a big parade
And a family of four

Ghosts and lovers
They'll haunt you for a while
Ghosts and lovers
They'll haunt you for a while
Ghosts and lovers
They will haunt you for a while
From the stars and from the sheets and ground
From the ground

You drank the days away you say
Today is the same as any other day
On the street there was a big parade
And a family of four
Victorian gentlemen

They rap on the walls
When you're trying to sleep
And there's nothing you can say
To make them go away
To make them go away
To make them go
Oh-oh-oh-oh away

Ghosts and lovers
They'll haunt you for a while
Ghosts and lovers
They'll haunt you for a while
Ghosts and lovers
They will haunt you for a while
From the stars and from the sheets and ground
From the ground
From the ground
From the ground
From the ground
