

Right Now

Mark Knopfler

Miles between us, here we are
Side by side in a stranded car
Right now, baby right now
And it's too dark to see
Anyhow so where are we
Right now, baby, right now?
You could say we've both come down
To a place called lonesome town.
When'd you loose a hold on me
Anyhow and where are we
Right now, baby right now?

We stood up and said 'I do'
Vowed to see each other through
Right now, baby right now.
I'm looking down this road tonight
And I don't see a light
Right now, baby right now.
If we're so clever tell me how
We're waiting for the wrecker now.
Let's forget what used to be
Anyhow and where are we
Right now, oh baby right now?
