

Mr. You

Mark Owen

We're still waiting out here for you we're still waiting come back soon you said that you'd make things better but we're still waiting in the queue

The queue of Mr You [2x]

Mr You in your pinstripe suit with your hair slicked back from an oil pack and your handkerchief in your pocket shaded blue my friends put their faith in you so you took their minds and then turned the screw and now I see them queuing in the queue

The queue of Mr You [2x]

Mr You you're looking flash with you're highlife strapped upon your back and your 52 week holiday per year champagne corks pop in your ear the only sound that you choose to hear mute the voices of the people in the queue

The queue of Mr You [2x]
we're still waiting out here for you we're still waiting in the queue

People are talking they're starting to walk away better start watching, coz people are leaving

The queue of Mr You [2x]
we're still here, waiting out here for you
we're still waiting, come back soon

The queue of Mr You [2x]
you said that you'd make things better [fade out]
