

Me And My Lonely Room

Marvin Gaye

Me and my lonely room
Snapping my fingers, pacing the floor
I sulk in my lonely room as I lay my weary head
Down then in comes you're vision you're vision once
Again I cry in my pillow baby

Pacing the floor no were to go
As I stroll through the streets
Dragging my weary head down
Then in comes you're vision you're vision once
Again
Then he goes boo hoo
