When the Sultan gives orders to take your head You must ride the wind to safety or you'll wind up dead Through the evil and darkness you make your stand Only skeletons of war will guide you by the hand

Silence growing loud Failure is not allowed

The battle that rages before my eyes
Is no different than the one that is inside my head

Silence growing loud Failure is not allowed

Ancient Kingdom still remains Crumble slowly Ride beyond mortality Leaving beauty now

Falling rain
Sensing pain of mind
Falling rain
Sensing pain of mind
Pain of mind

Falling rain
Sensing pain of mind
Falling rain
Sensing pain of mind
Pain of mind

Silence growing loud Failure is not allowed

Ancient Kingdom still remains Crumble slowly Ride beyond mortality Leaving beauty now

Sparks explode into the air Live forever Ageless sounds they never die And I will remain
