

Alabama Motel Room

Matthew Good Band

What is life if not a joke one night she went out for smokes and they took her apart like a ragdoll in the back of a van in an Alabama motel room
I have one of them tied up in the bathroom
I am down and out
but he will not get away with it again

When the night comes in I hope I'm out of the rain
When the night comes in
she makes me whole again

I never sleep, I just watch TV and the gun it lies next to me whispering
I reflect on her sweet perfume
I am down and out
but they will not get away with it again

Say you love me
we will never get the chance again
