

Listen, I'll tell you that frontalot is incredible even recommended to rock the mic like instead of a silence, you'd have me fronting into the amplifier point with the thumb, at which mc to admire i got hi-res images of drum sounds that I loop you get to listen to them and to me too how fortunate y'all are to get to bask under my glow the mc, humble conduit to nerdcore flow now it's time for a little braggadocio while I swing my arms like ralph macchio

I stand 77 feet tall, I got eight balls and all'a'y'all are subject to my thrall I act appalled when in receipt of less than the highest honor some day I'll be both revered & passe like madonna I'm all in effect, people tend to genuflect when I enter rooms, 'cause all dopeness is subsumed I spell the doom of the hip-hop subgenre you used to prefer the geekish rhythm intersection with the predilections that I've incurred you say "word?" With a surfeit of beats I'm unlikely to run out plus I'm so bright it's like redundant to have the sun out one out of each ten brags is hyperbolic it's all inconsequential, you're just here to hear my tongue fr olic pistachios ain't that great, I thought I'd mention 'em distinctive from how awesome I am, my rhyme's venturesome then the dumb luck of it all is I discover other rappers already braggin' but front's on sync, no lagging!

keep slang in files that recombine to add weight to fat track s I overlaid this very vocal via gums that flap I sap clock cycles from the sucker MCs as they struggle to pars e
and yet this front's no farce! some awesome massive aspiration stations self in my head: to be the dopest innovation since the slicing of bread instead of simply relying on my insistence to prove that every twist of my tongue is another radical move.
