

Corrupted

Mcfly

Crashing into walls
Banging on your door
So why'd you let me in
Falling through the floor
Diving into deep
Underneath your skin

So good you got to abuse it
So fast that sometimes you lose it
It cheers you up when you feed it
But everyone needs to eat
Am I too much for you?
Cause you're too much for me
Still wanna be corrupted

Lets convince ourselves
It's all under control
A storm that we can break.
But is this what we want
Cause we might miss the hate
You know it feels so good
To make the same mistakes.
(Mistakes, mistakes, mistakes, mistakes)

So good you got to abuse it.
So fast that sometimes you loose it
It cheers you up when you feed it
But everyone needs to eat.
Am I too much for you?
Cause your too much for me.
Still wanna be corrupted.

Do you remember how we started?
Fairytale got twisted and decayed?
The innocence have long been broken
How did we get this way?

So good you got to abuse it.
So fast but sometimes you loose it
It cheers you up when your feed it
But everyone needs to eat.
So good you got to abuse it
So fast but sometimes you loose it
It cheers you up when your feed it
But everyone needs to eat.
Am I too much for you?
Cause your too much for me.
Still wanna be, still wanna be corrupted
