Foolish

Mcfly

I never thought she'd remember
The way that I left a hole
Didn't know I had it all
Til the moment I lost it all
Picking my mistakes and faults
And she will never recover
I couldn't get over
And I could never move on
And I'm tryin' to recall
The day I made a fall
Should be broken on the floor
I made her shatter

Foolish for me to think
She wouldn't leave by December
Foolish to let misery
Let it fall apart in autumn
Driving on a one-way street
No U turn to get back to me
Running close to empty, but I
I'll never say goodbye
I'll never say, I'll never say, I'll never say, I'll never say

And now I'm running in circles
Feels like I'm losing my mind
And I'm trying to get off
Anywhere before she's gone
Going down this lonely road
Hoping to see her again
Cause I keep seein' reflections
Ashes in every mirror
Cause I know that I'm alone
Making love until the dawn
Now that every night I know
Cant live without her

Foolish for me to think
She wouldn't leave by December
Foolish to let misery
Let it fall apart in autumn
Driving on a one-way street
No U turn to get back to me
Running close to empty, but I
I'll never say goodbye

Foolish for me to think
She wouldn't leave by December
Foolish to let misery
Let it fall apart in autumn
Driving on a one-way street
No U turn to get back to me
Running close to empty, but I
I'll never say goodbye

Never say, never say
Never say, never say goodbye
Never say, never say

Never say, never say goodbye

Driving on a one-way street
No U turn to get back to me
Running close to empty, but I
I'll never say goodbye

Foolish for me to think
She wouldn't leave by December
Foolish to let misery
Let it fall apart in autumn
Driving on a one-way street
No U turn to get back to me
Running close the empty, but I
I'll never say goodbye

Foolish for me to think
She wouldn't leave by December
Foolish to let misery
Let it fall apart in autumn
Driving on a one-way street
No U turn to get back to me
Running close the empty, but I
I'll never say goodbye

Foolish for me to think
Never say, never say goodbye...
