

Train of Love

Meat Loaf

You're my savior on your velvet throne
You're lookin' pretty with your jewels and bones
Standing 'round with the mud and the stones
Gotta come on down and take me home

You gotta give me a piece of your pie
Cos I been knocking on your window
I been knocking on your door
And I been trying to get myself inside

Don't you know
That I'm riding the train now
Can't feel the pain now
Don't even know where I am
No turning back now
We're on the right track, yeah
I'm chugging just as fast as I can

Stoking the fire
We're getting much higher
Much higher than when we began
Riding on the train of love

(train of love, train of love)
Train of love
(train of love, ooh)
T-t-train of love
(train of love, train of love)
Train of love
(train of love, train of love, ooh)

You're my savior on your Hollywood sky
My veins are getting horny and my soul's running dry
You know I've been checking out for all that I'm worth
But you gotta give me proof I got a life after birth

You gotta give me some kind of reply
Cos I been knocking on your window
I been knocking on your door
And I been trying to get myself inside

Don't you know
That I'm riding the train now
Can't feel the pain now
Don't even know where I am
No turning back now
We're on the right track, yeah
I'm chugging just as fast as I can

Stoking the fire
We're getting much higher
Much higher than when we began
Riding on the train of love

(train of love, train of love)
Train of love
(train of love, ooh)

I'm like a train of love
Train of love
Train of love
(train of love, train of love, ooh)
Gotta have your train of love

(train of love)

Ride the train now
(train of love, train of love, train of love)
(train of love, ooh)
Can't feel the pain now
(train of love, train of love, train of love)
Don't even know where I am
(train of love, train of love)
Train of love
(train of love)
Train of love
Train of love
Train of love
(train of love, train of love)
Gotta have your train of love
Oh, want your train of love
T-t-train of love
T-t-t
T-t-t
Riding the train now
Can't feel the pain now
Don't even know where I am
Oh, train of love
Train of love
Don't even know where I am
