Jew Boy Flower Head

Melvins

Liar
Lies on and anyway
Leader
He cannot forget
The world needs now
And anyway I hate it
Leave it on the floor
The seer
Lies on and anyway
Maybe
Attach it to the wall
The world needs now
And anyway the crosses
It's later than you think

We all need An old and all Lately He cannot forget Holding out And everywhere I seen it And we can all belong The wheel Sized up and everything And feeling Back against the wall The world is now A motor, yeah The native We are not alone
