Everything Impossible

MercyMe

I was taught to be practical in everything I do Holding on to what is tangible, and then came You That's when I found myself so far away, from everything I knew I took a leap of faith Even though You're difficult for me to explain I know I'll never be the same You're everything I cannot see You're everything I cannot say I know it all seems so illogical But that's okay You're the love You give to me You're the love I give away You are everything impossible And that's okay That's okay! All the things that make no sense to me, draw me to You Like finding freedom by surrendering, can it be true With everything I can and cannot know This mystery is bringing life to me And all this love I have for You I can't contain I know I'll never be the same You're everything I cannot see You're everything I cannot say I know it all seems so illogical But that's okay You're the love You give to me You're the love I give away You are everything impossible And that's okay That's okay What's so hard to understand What I cannot comprehend Is that You love me the way I am You're everything I cannot see You're everything I cannot say I know it all seems so illogical But that's okay You're the love You give to me You're the love I give away You are everything impossible And that's okay You're everything I cannot see You're everything I cannot say

I know it all seems so illogical But that's okay You're the love You give to me You're the love I give away You are everything impossible And that's okay

And that's okay
