Lucky Old Colorado

Merle Haggard

I met her here in California Fell in love and then she was gone And she always talked about Denver And going back to her Colorado home

So lucky old Colorado
You've got the girl of my dreams
She love you, Colorado
That's more than she'll ever love me

You know I'd take her back in a heartbeat That is if I thought that I could But she's somewhere warm in Colorado And she's gone I think for good

So lucky old Colorado You've got the girl of my dreams She love you, Colorado More than she'll ever love me

You know I hope that she's happy in Colorado And I hope that she'll always be But if she ever comes back to California I hope something reminds her of me

So lucky old Colorado
You've got the girl of my dreams
She love you, Colorado
More than she'll ever love me
Yeah, she love you, Colorado
That's more than she'll ever love me
