This Time

Is our time gone forever? Nothing else seems to matter Sitting to watch the sun die Goodbye Feeling uninspired Left alone and tired Waking up to nothing I need something

I can't say goodbye forever But I'll say goodbye for now This time, like last time It's over I'm leaving this behind

The walls are closing in now I'm walking through it somehow Waking up with nothing Give me something I've lost all sense of meaning Staring at the ceiling No longer believing everything

I can't say goodbye forever But I'll say goodbye for now This time, like last time It's over I'm leaving this behind

I can't stand another day without you But I have to walk away Infatuation's got me going crazy Desperation makes me stay I'm leaving this behind

This time, like last time It's over I'm leaving this behind

I've taken all that I can take So I'm leaving this behind I'm leaving this behind
