Rebel of Babylon

Metallica

Rebel grip your bottle tight Just float away Rebel is it hard to leave What makes you stay?

Go take your poison ink Sign life away Then take your dirty spoon And dig your grave Dig your grave

Rebel grips the bottle tight Just floats away Rebel finds it hard to leave What makes you stay?

He takes the poison ink Signing life away Then takes the dirty spoon And digs his grave

Let this dark shine Let this dark shine Let it shine bright Don't let it burn out tonight

Kill me one more time
Stigmata
Kill me one more time
Neo martyr

Gonna die young Gonna live forever Kill me one more time Rise up Rebel of babylon

Renegade fights the fight
That no one wins
He claims a crown of thorns
To pierce the skin

He climbs his crucifix
And waits for dawn
Thinks they'll remember him
After he's gone

Let this dark shine Let this dark shine Let it shine bright Don't let it burn out tonight

Kill me one more time
Stigmata
Kill me one more time
Neo martyr

Gonna die young Gonna live forever Kill me one more time Rise up Rebel of babylon

Rise up Rise up Resurrection

The rebel fights the fight That no one wins To claim a crown of thorns To pierce his skin

Climbs his crucifix And waits for dawn He looses consciousness The myth lives on

Let this dark shine
Let this dark shine
Let it shine bright
Don't let it burn out tonight
Tonight

Kill me one more time
Stigmata
Kill me one more time
Neo martyr

Gonna die young Gonna live forever Kill me one more time Rise up Rebel of babylon
