You are the flame that's growing deep inside You are the blazing passion in my eyes You are the aching shut up in my bones You are the longing that won't let me go

Let it burn, let it burn now From the inside out Let it rage, let it rage now You are the fire You are the fire

You're all consuming, You can't be contained Never relenting, changing everything You are the love that overwhelms my heart You are the fire lighting up the dark

Let it burn, let it burn now From the inside out Let it rage, let it rage now You are the fire You are the fire

Fan the flames 'til the whole world sees us burn You are the fire
Fan the flames 'til the whole world sees us burn You are the fire
Fan the flames 'til the whole world sees us burn You are the fire
Fan the flames 'til the whole world sees us burn

Let it burn, let it burn now From the inside out
Let it rage, let it rage now You are the fire
You are the fire
You are the fire
