

You Died

Miracle Of Sound

Your journey it began because
YOU DIED.
Out of your cell you ran and then
YOU DIED.
You pause to catch your breath
And die another gruesome death
So now you creep around each corner terrified

Humanity restored and then
YOU DIED.
A graveyard to explore...
HAHA DENIED.
For every step you take
Is just one more fatal mistake
So you must learn to take the torture in your stride

Bells chime torment
Darkest descent
Every soul spent
To doom sent...

Down in the depths of the dead
Feel the agony
Scars from a thousand wounds
In your memory

Over and over
Grind through the butchery
Once more you'll run this
Gauntlet of misery

Look to the sun's rays
Behold and offer praise
Look to the sun's rays
Comfort in the glow

Brave you may be
You think that your mind is tough?
Come have a go
If you think you're hard enough

Dive into death
Embrace all the treachery
Learn to enjoy
The bloodshed and butchery

Bells chime torment
Darkest descent
Every soul spent
Once more
