

Raining Again

Moby

Never know but nothing less
Couldn't see that I have guessed
Couldn't see, couldn't stay away

I never even stopped to dream and That I'd see anything and
The world is coming out so cold

Oh, and it's raining again
Loud on your car like bullets on tin.
Oh, and it's raining again
Open the door and pulling me in

Nothing here but nothing less
Cold heart is stuck in this
Couldn't say the kindest words we knew

Everything I tried to say but no one listens anyway
I had to give up all that I knew

Oh, and it's raining again
Loud on your car like bullets on tin.
Oh, and it's raining again
Open the door and pulling me in

Oh, and it's raining
Raining again
Oh, and it's raining
Raining again

Nothing here but nothing less
Everything we both regret
Couldn't say the kindest words we knew
Cause it was winter time and We wanted some more time and We watched the girls try something new

We didn't even stopped to see that
That it was breaking me and the world is coming out so cold
What you want you couldn't get, you Couldn't wait for something less, you had to give up everything you knew

Oh, and it's raining again
Loud on your car like bullets on tin.
Oh, and it's raining again
Open the door and pulling me in
[2x]

Sadness like water raining down
Raining down, raining down, raining down
[5x]

Oh, and it's raining
Raining again

Oh, and it's raining
Raining again
