

Ocean of Tears

Monica

No one will love you better than I
Got an ocean of tears to give back to you
No one will love you better than I
If I could have you again, I'd

Love, where have you been?
I've been searching
Where are you hiding?
And love, I need you here
Nothing's been clear
Tell me why did you disappear
It's so hard for me to function
When you're not here by my side
It's getting harder just to breathe
Without you, need you in my life

And oh, I've wasted so many tears, I
Cried an ocean of tears to get back to you
And oh, if I could have you again
I'd give you all that I am
And I'd try
No one will love you better than I
I, I, I, I, I, I

Love, where have you gone?
Won't you come home
Won't make you presents, no
'Cause time it is getting away
Every day is another I spend alone
It's so hard for me to function
When you're not here by my side
It's getting harder just to breathe
Without you, need you in my life

And oh, I've wasted so many tears, I
Cried an ocean of tears to get back to you
And oh, if I could have you again
I'd give you all that I am
And I'd try
No one will love you better than I
I, I, I, I, I, I

My heart don't beat the same no more
And every day without you
I'm like the walking dead, I'm not living
The sun don't shine without love
Give me a reason to get up
I can't live without your truth
So I surrender me to you

And oh, I've wasted so many tears, I
Cried an ocean of tears to get back to you
And oh, if I could have you again
I'd give you all that I am
And I'd try
No one will love you better than I
I, I, I, I, I, I

No one will love you better than I
I, I, I, I, I, I
If I could have you again, I'd
I, I, I, I, I
No one will love you better than I
