

Time Machine

Monster Magnet

Darling, let me dry up all your tears
How about Luna Park tonight and then Algiers?
Remember how we stole the pharaohs' gold?
We laughed at all the rubes as they got old

That's all fine if you have a time machine
But I broke mine, can't you see
Now I'm here on the edge of the world
Missing you, it's true
I'm missing you

I think I'll go to 1969
I'll buy some comic books and replay my whole life
Bills come in that we don't have to pay
I can mend your heart when I change yesterday

That's all fine if you have a time machine
I broke mine, can't you see
Now I'm here on the edge or the world
Missing you, it's true
I'm missing you
