

Nothing To Say

Motorpsycho

With words big as headlines
The Gospel according to you
Is broadcast on frequencies
Too frequent to see through
But you've got

Nothing to say
Nothing to say
Nothing to say to me
Nothing to say
Nothing to say
Nothing to say
Nothing to say

I just can't relate to your world, man
There's nothing in it for me
The things you take for granted
I still don't want to see
'Cause you've got

Nothing to say

I'll take you down to a river
And show you how it flows
And tell you a story
And watch you grow
'Cause I've got

Something to say
Something to say
Something to say to you
Something to say
Something to say
Something to say
Something to say
Something to say
Something to say
Something to say to you
