

Bright Star

Moya Brennan

Is there one bright star, one bright star in Heaven?

See the beauty in the sky, see it sparkles in your eye
Crown our hearts with royal breath like white souls awaiting birth
Push away this painted shell, painted shell

Is there one bright star, one bright star in Heaven?
Is there one bright star, one bright star in Heaven?
Are there stars that light? Light the dark horizon

Hear the beauty of this sound, how it echoes all around
Play this part with nobleness, straight and in the wilderness
Hide no more this future flame, future flame

Is there one bright star, one bright star in Heaven?
Are there stars that light? Light the dark horizon

Is there one bright star, one bright star in Heaven?
