

Olympic Dreams

Mr. President

No day before so full of deep devotion and in my heart
I feel a strong emotion Olympic fire wakes my desire to join in the games of the world

So far away the day's of pain and sorrow enjoy the games there's a new tomorrow let's share the story of fame and glory the party of friendship for all

Goin' for Olympic dreams Goin' for the gold
Goin' for the medals
That I never thought I'd hold Flyin' on the wings of freedom reachin' for the sky the Olympic dreams will never die

The time has come just do it now or never a star is born and it will last forever congratulations and celebrations
it's only one moment in time

The winner really takes it all no loser will be standing small so come on let us celebrate together
