

I'll do what you tell me to I could take it on Faith if you want me to push it down further inside Push it down further inside I'll put it in a place we Both can forget, I'm pushing it down so deep inside
Bottled up nailed down I'm swimming in pushed down Things you said sealed up I trust that one day I'll be content Being your has-been broken but not bent I can't be your friend yet
