

Thought Contagion

Muse

Strung out falling from the big time
Welcome to the infinite black skies
Brain clans fractured identity
Fragments and scattered debris

Thought contagion
Thought contagion

Fall down long winds are counted out
Prop me up before I black out
Withdraw before you're out of time
A clean slate and buried war crimes

You've been bitten by a true believer
You've been bitten by someones who's hungrier than you
You've been bitten by a true believer
You've been bitten by someones false beliefs

Thought contagion
Thought contagion

They'll never do what you want them to Give it up and watch them break through
It's too late for a revolution
Brace for the final solution

Thought contagion

You've been bit by a true believer
You've been bit by someone who's hungrier than you
You've been bit by a true believer
You've been bitten by someone's false beliefs
