

More Than Words

Museum

Show me who You are, the depth within Your eyes
Find my wandering heart, let grace restore my sight

I want to see You as you are
I want to know Your every word
I want to draw much closer still
I want to know You more than words
More than words

I'm running through the dark, illuminate the night
I'm trusting with my heart, that You will be my light, be my light

I want to see You as you are
I want to know Your every word
I want to draw much closer still
I want to know You more than words
More than words

So I run back to You, back to where I belong
Lost myself in this world, now I know I was wrong
So I bow down to You, throw myself at Your throne
There's so much I want to know

I want to see You as you are
I want to know Your every word

I want to see You as you are
I want to know Your every word
I want to draw much closer still
I want to know You more than words
More than words
