

Fucked Up Situation

My Darkest Days

I should be home right now
It's a really small town
I keep looking over my shoulder
How many people know now?
You got a family at home
You're out with me getting stoned
It's been a long time coming
But now I've got you all alone
So we lock the door behind us
'Cause we both know the truth

It's a fucked up situation
When the one that you love is never enough
It's a fucked up fascination
It's a fucked up situation

She likes it rough and I do too
Her knees are turning black and blue
The front desk keeps on calling
She throws her phone across the room
So we hope nobody finds us
'Cause we both know the truth

It's a fucked up situation
When the one that you love is never enough
It's a fucked up fascination
When the one that you trust is traded for lust
It's a fucked up situation

So we lock the door behind us
'Cause we both know the truth

It's a fucked up situation
When the one that you love is never enough
It's a fucked up fascination
When the one that you trust is traded for lust
It's a fucked up sit...

It's a fucked up situation
When the one that you love is never enough
It's a fucked up fascination
