

Save Me

My Darkest Days

Spanish lullabies, under moonlit skies, we found love there.
Dancing in the sand, walking hand in hand, both without a care.
Haunted by the past, completely in our grasp, simply unaware.
Was it meant to last, it fell apart so fast, life is just not fair.

It's time to face what this love has done to me,
I can't escape, only your love can save me.

You're the only one who matters, and the only one for me,
Now I'm lonelier than ever only your love can save me.
I've wanted this forever, but I want you all for me,
You can put me back together, only your love can save me.

Each day I'm in hell, everyone can tell by the look on my face,
Not one day goes by that I don't wonder why, don't believe it's fate.

It's time to face what this love has done to me,
I can't escape, only your love can save me.

You're the only one who matters, and the only one for me,
Now I'm lonelier than ever only your love can save me.
I've wanted this forever, but I want you all for me,
You can put me back together, only your love can save me.

Only your love can save me,
Whoa, whoa oh, whoa, whoa oh
Whoa, whoa oh, whoa,
Only your love can save me.

You're the only one who matters, and the only one for me,
Now I'm lonelier than ever only your love can save me.
I've wanted this forever, but I want you all for me,
You can put me back together, only your love can save me.
Whoa, whoa oh, whoa,
Only your love can save me.
Whoa, whoa oh, whoa,
Only your love can save me.
