

Warm and Willing

Nat King Cole

Love is for the warm and willing, waiting for the warm and willing

Love is ours to take or toss aside

Take this promise to your heart and let your lips repeat

"Kisses are too sweet to be denied"

Show me that you're warm and willing, make each golden moment thrilling

Give my empty arms a welcome sign

We can make the stars go spinning and the earth stand still

If you're warm and willing to be mine

Take this promise to your heart and let your lips repeat

"Kisses are too sweet to be denied"

Show me that you're warm and willing, make each golden moment thrilling

Give my empty arms a welcome sign

We can make the stars go spinning and the earth stand still

If you're warm and willing to be mine

It would be heavenly, if you're warm and willing to be mine
