

No Plans for the Future

Natalie Cole

Let the dishes wait, no need in dusting
No reason to clean the dirty floor
'Cause I'm sure it doesn't matter
Now that he has gone away

I have no plans for the future 'cause he's not here today
Let them go to the park and I'll sit alone here in the dark

No joy left in my heart anymore
Let me hold on to my memories
And if I die this way just let it be

I have no plans for the future 'cause he's not here with me

Why should I comb my head
When I know, I'm not going anywhere?
Why should I keep right on giving
When I've lost my only reason for living?
So go on, just go on and have yourself a ball

I have no plans for the future 'cause he's not here
I have no plans for the future 'cause he's not here at all
