

Seongah and Jimmy

Neil Diamond

Seongah and Jimmy,
Seongah and Jimmy
They found each other
Downtown in Brooklyn
She's from Korea, he's from Long Island
They found each other,
And they discovered love!

Seongah and Jimmy,
Seongah and Jimmy
Both have a sister,
Both have a brother
She learns her English
He learns Korean
They learn that love is spoken in many ways!

Seongah, how close can two lovers be?
Each day's a promise I'll never let you go
Seongah, how long must two lovers dream?
My head is reading feelings I've never known.

Work in the city, go there together
They take the subway, all kinds of weather
Friends in her office know her as Sarah,
Seongah and Jimmy work for a better day.

Seongah and Jimmy,
Seongah and Jimmy
Live near each other, out there in Green Point
Move in together, promise forever
She cooks Korean, he likes Korean too!

Seongah, don't be impatient with me
With you inside me, nowhere that I can't go
Seongah, dream how you want love to be
And I'll make a promise I'll try to make it so

She wants her masters, he helps her study
He has her tooth-fay, she finds a dentist
He says I love you, she knows he means it
She says Saranghae, he knows she means it too!

I hear music in the air
People dancing in the street
Loves in-blossom everywhere
Even strangers start to greet
Love happens in grove land
I know there long ago, and nothing's changed
Brought flowers, she took them
And laughed together in the pouring rain!

Oh yeah!
Seongah and Jimmy,
Seongah and Jimmy
Soon they get married, and came their families
Her's from Korea, his from Long Island
They stayed together, and they had a joyful day

Seongah and Jimmy,
They had so much to say!
Seongah and Jimmy,
They found a better way!
