

It makes no sense
The way you talk
How far you've come 'till now
Sure of your lines
How to decline
It's obvious you've lost

Don't tell me you're not aware
Don't say I'm not aware
Don't you say I'm not aware
Don't tell me you're not aware
Don't say I'm not aware no

Say it like it is
Say it like you mean it
Words are strong enough to say you care
Say it like it is
Say it like you mean it
Words are strong enough to make you swear

When all is gone
And all is lost
How can you still stand strong
Sure of your lines
You still believe
It's obvious you're lost

Don't tell me you're not aware
Don't say I'm not aware
Don't you say I'm not aware
Don't tell me I'm not aware
Don't say I'm not aware no

Say it like it is
Say it like you mean it
Words are strong enough to say you care
Say it like it is
Say it like you mean it
Words are strong enough to make you swear
