

A neurotic, paranormal impact is waiting to explode
Another mindless constellation is going to overload
Now my mind is filled up with visions of all I've seen
So will you please replace this fucking insect out of me?

And I don't mind
And I don't listen to music for a paranormal life
And I'm still alive

Numb, deaf, and blinded of what I hear and see
It's permanently waiting for a chance to capture me
Am I paranoid? Am I a freak?
Am I stunned without a chance of getting weak?

And I don't mind
And I don't listen to music for a paranormal life

For a paranormal life

And I don't mind
And I don't listen to music for a paranormal life
And I'm still alive
