New Boyz

Who gon, who gon, who gone love you better than me?
Who's gonna kiss ya, who's gonna touch ya, baby, better than me?
Yeah, can't nobody
Nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody baby, can't nobody
Nobody, nobody, oohh nobody baby

She the reason why my clothes stay fresh when I'm packing to go
And she the only one at the airport when I'm back from the road
Took me home, two ribs on the stove, my favorite how you know?
Hit the couch and she already had the game on, Tivo cause it ended hours ago
She screamed, when kobe won the game with a jumper
Ran through the house like a playground in summer
She wrapped her legs around me and I spun her
Kissed her forehead and said that "I love her"
Then she ran the water for me, got down in the lingerie
And said that she gon model for me, perfect way to start the day.

Who gon, who gon, who gone love you better than me?
Who's gonna kiss ya, who's gonna touch ya baby better than me?
Yeahhh, can't nobody
Nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody baby, can't nobody
Nobody, nobody, oohh nobody baby

I don't think anybody made, you the only who got it made
Like everytime I see you, our love gets stronger by the day
Take you to different states, every day a different place
You never heard of or seen that place, Of different people different faces
You one of a kind, mommy you mine
I get to work like overtime
I'm past that up high, I know you wanna meet someone who you can fit
And so I step up to the plate, who run this shit

Who gon, who gon, who gone love you better than me?
Who's gonna kiss ya, who's gonna touch ya baby better than me?
Yeahhh, can't nobody
Nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody baby, can't nobody
Nobody, nobody, oohh nobody baby

You can try something new if you want to, if you want to ooh
And baby you can go, if you think this is ain't where you..
.. baby where you should be, but don't nobody know you like me
If it takes that for you to see
Than baby you can go, but like I said before, can't nobody

Who gon, who gon, who gone love you better than me?
Who's gonna kiss ya, who's gonna touch ya baby better than me?
Yeahhh, can't nobody
Nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody baby, can't nobody
Nobody, nobody, oohh nobody baby
