Lay her down to rest in your bloodstained party dress
Say goodnight to all your guests
Darling now forgive but not forget
Here's to all your lies, say your last goodbyes
Honey don't act so surprised
Don't you realize that tonight's the night that you die

Heartbreaks are your profession
Now you're not keeping my attention
Six feet just won't do, we'll have to dig a little deeper just for you

Say goodnight to all your guests
Darling now forgive but not forget
Here's to all your lies, say your last goodbyes
Honey don't act so surprised
Don't you realize that tonight's the night that you die
