It looks so easy being trapped inside this head of mine. Disturbing dreams, and haunted beings they control my mind

Dark desires fuel the fire suffocating i can't breath.

Bet you'de love to see me burn, so move aside or come with me.

I will always be a tortured soul Don't fix me up, just let me go. Come join me if you like I'll be on the other side

How did i end up this way? How did i end up addicted to pain and suffering? I have sealed my fate

Dark desires fuel the fire suffocating i can't breath. Bet you'de love to see me burn, so move aside or come with me.

I will always be a tortured soul Don't fix me up, just let me go. Come join me if you like I'll be on the other side

I have a slight confession I brought this on myself Will never learn my lesson I know what i've become Come with me..

I will always be a tortured soul Don't fix me up, just let me go. Come join me if you like I'll be on the other side
