

Tombstone

New Years Day

Tie the knot, tie the noose.
Here we lie, in love and truth,
In a coffin built for two.
When all that's left,
Is skin and bones,
I'll still have love for you.
Rest in Peace, rest with me,
Through the dark, and through the light,
I'll hold you close, I'll hold you tight,
Forever yours, forever more, forever more,
So close your eyes, for one last time,
If tonight we fall asleep,
I'll pray my soul be yours to keep, to keep.
