

All American

Nick Carter

Lost, somewhere on Hollywood and Vine
She was picking up a dime
I said where you've been all my life?
It must have been those crams and I see the straight lines
Those paper thin cheeks with no meat on their thighs
And I don't give a damn if you're stuck at fifth wide
So please look that behind!

She's got a booty that's all American
Like a Kardashian
She's super-sizing it, all American
All American, she's like a battleship
She's double decked in, all American
Oho, that's all American
Oho, that's all American

Stuck in the middle of nowhere
Daisy dukes and derrieres
And I can't help but stop and stare (stop, stop and stare)
There's something in the water that makes them look shine
I'm drinking in the view that I get from behind
I'm pledging allegiance to you in Levi's
So please look that behind!

She's got a booty that's all American
Like a Kardashian
She's super-sizing it, all American
All American, she's like a battleship
She's double decked in, all American
Oho, that's all American
Oho, that's all American

We like our booty made in the USA
That's all American
We like our booty made in the USA
That's all American
We like our booty made in the USA
That's all American
I'm pledging allegiance to you in Levi's
So raise the ???

She's got a booty that's all American
Like a Kardashian
She's super-sizing it, all American
All American, she's like a battleship
She's double decked in, all American
Oho, that's all American
Oho, that's all American
