

So Far Away

Nick Carter

So far, so far, so far away
So far, so far, so far away

She's the girl I see
When I'm in my dreams
I'm seeing the lady
And I'm going crazy
She's the one
For me
And the one that I can't reach
And I never knew that Someone could be so perfect

And I want her love so bad
I can almost taste it
And I need her touch so much
I can almost feel it
She's so far away
She's so far away
She's so far away
She's so far away

When she walks away
Does she feel my pain?
My heart is aching
It's like I'm breaking yeah
She's the one I want
And even when she's gone
I'm overtaken
There's no escaping

And I want her love so bad
I can almost taste it
And I need her touch so much
I can almost feel it
She's so far away
She's so far away
She's so far away
She's so far away

It's a tragedy
When she's here with me
Cause I know she'll never see it
And my heart just keeps on bleeding
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
(So far, so far, so far away)

And I want her love so bad
I can almost taste it
And I need her touch so much
I can almost feel it
She's so far away
She's so far away
She's so far away
She's so far away

And I want her love so bad

I can almost taste it
