

Kodak Moment

nickasaur!

I promised you everything would be alright
But your pipes are clogged with ignorance
I'm obviously not a plumber
But what else is new?
You're taking me for granted

I tried to hold on,
But you lost your grip.
Life goes on,
But you let it slip...
Away,
Into the history books
This is your Kodak moment,
So get a good last look

You can't disagree
With the hands of time
Things start to age
And they lose their shine
You put me on your shelf
Like a collection is a must
For you,
Too bad another one bites the dust

I tried to hold on,
But you lost your grip.
Life goes on,
But you let it slip...
Away,
Into the history books
This is your Kodak moment,
So get a good last look

Hold on (I tried to hold on,)
Life goes on (But you lost your grip.)
Hold on (Life goes on)
Life goes on (And you let it slip)
Hold on (Away,)
Life goes on (Into the history books)
Hold on (This is your Kodak moment)
Life goes on (So get a good last look)
