Why Keep On Breaking My Heart

Nina Simone

Why keep on breaking my heart? When it's beating for you Only you

Why do you toy with my dreams They're depending on you to come true

When you invaded my mind You took over complete control

Then I surrender to you All my dreams, my heart and soul

Please say There's a chance some day you may feel just the way That I do

But why keep on breaking my heart When it's beating for you Only you

Why keep on breaking my heart When it's beating for you Only you
