

Lucifer (No Doubt)

Nneka

It is Dollars, it is Euros, it is Sullis, it is Pounds
It is Crowns, it is Yens, it is Lyons, still the clouds are gray
Did you want us to believe
That you love us more than you love yourself?

We have been waiting to trust you since
Had you praying on blood wounded knees
For you to hear us out in distress
Must confess you have achieved what is best
For the devil to rule our lives, to ruin this world

Oh, no doubt, I am loving you more than I love myself
With your mouth you stole my soul so I could not love myself
Oh, no doubt, I am loving you more than I love myself
With your mouth you took my soul so and so I cannot love myself

For there was in our minds, our soul in the world
There are books, there are laws, there is religion for confusion, for control
Every corner there is dread, there is pain
Is there love in the heart of man? For we know what we do

Oh, no doubt, I am loving you more than I love myself
With your mouth you stole my soul so I could not love myself
Oh, no doubt, I am loving you more than I love myself
With your mouth you took my soul so and so I cannot love myself
